Celebrating St. Patrick's Day at The East End All Weekend Long

TUCSON, AZ (February 26, 2014) – Everyone has the luck of the Irish on St. Patrick's Day weekend at the East End with festivities at night for the 21 and over crowd as well as the chance to partake in themed menu offerings for those downtown for the St. Patrick's Day parade at both at The Cup Café and Maynards Market. There is no admittance fee to participate in the events, so keep your green in your wallet.

The party gets started at 9 p.m. Friday, March 14 with the St. Pagac's Day Circus. Named for the renowned local artist and impresario Joe Pagac, the event delivers a night of Irish themed shenanigans and Tom Foolery setting the tone for the four-day weekend of McMayhem guaranteed to happen at The Hotel Congress.

In addition to the drink specials, St. Pagac's Day Circus enthusiasts will enjoy:

- A chance to ride the McMechanical bull.
- Posing for a photo with a real Leprechaun in front of a rainbow & pot o' gold.
- Dancing with our River Dancers.
- Listening to the sweet sounds of the bagpipes.

The weekend's drink specials include an Irish Whiskey Tasting, $4 Jameson and $6 Irish Car Bombs. At midnight on Friday, March 15 the Hotel Congress is hosting the annual Great Guinness Toast, which is accompanied by great live music and Solid Gold DJ sets.

Maynards Market nod's to the Irish with special pricing on Irish Beers, a tasty special of Corned Beef and Cabbage Slaw Panini on Sourdough with Irish Cheddar and a bowl o' potato soup.
